ABOUT BAYFRONT

In 1999, a group of social workers and therapists based in the City of Long Beach took an interest to develop their own non-profit with the focus of providing comprehensive behavioral treatment programs for adolescents.

Under the name H.V. Group Home, the program purpose was to provide an intensively structured residential facility for those adolescents aged 11 to 18 who had not been able to be treated in existing community care facilities within Los Angeles County.

"Changing lives is what we do!"

In 2001 Maryam Ribadu (current President/CEO) was promoted from Clinical Assistant to Administrator. While focusing on the completion of her MBA she was able to lead a team of dedicated employees with various backgrounds to help achieve the following goals and objectives:

- To provide a safe, protective, nurturing, and home-like environment that maximizes the opportunity for the adolescent to resume a reasonable age-appropriate pursuit of development.
- To involve the caregivers and family, as well as social workers and probation officers, in the entire treatment process in order to help the adolescent maintain the gains achieved.

In May 2006 H.V. Group Home contracted with L.A. County to provide Wraparound Services to those adolescents in Los Angeles County Service Planning Area (SPA) 8, encompassing Long Beach/South Bay. In April 2009 H.V. Group Home changed its name to Bayfront Youth & Family Services and adapted a motto that best communicates our organization's mission – "Changing lives is what we do!"

As of October 2015, Bayfront Youth and Family Services has undergone programmatic restructuring to meet the current needs of the county with emphasis on outpatient, in-home and school-based care.
